

PLEASE DO NOT weaken the Telephone Privacy Law in Indiana. Since the inception of this law my family and I enjoy dinners and time together without the constant interruption of telemarketers who refuse to take NO for an answer, insist on call back after you display a lack of interest and have no regard for your privacy in your home.

To weaken this law would be to take a step backwards in the protection of my rights, I strongly oppose any weakening of the current law.